

REMARKS

Claims 1-7 are pending in this application. By this Amendment, claims 5-7 are added.

As stated on page 2, lines 7-9 of the specification, one of the objects of the invention is to provide a stator coil having a parallel circuit arrangement. Furthermore, the circulation coils are part of the entire stator coil structure. Applicants' disclosure thus provides support for circulation coils that have a parallel configuration because the location of the parallel circuit arrangement includes the location of circulation coils.. Support for the series arrangement can be found, at least, in Fig. 6.

Prompt and favorable examination is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
